INSTITUTE.

CONSULTATION IN ALL CASES FREE

CURES GUARANTEED OR NO PAY REQUIRED

IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRECY MAINTAINED

The above rules, established Dr. J. C Young in 1850, d which have done so much secure the reputation of this stitute, are still adhered to, fording those in need of dical aid, the certainty of re and the utmost confidence. There is nothing of so great portance to the sick as to ow where to find a physi- n whose skill and humanity e assurance of proper and ivate treatment The Doc- r would respectfully call the ention of those of both sexes o are suffering or in trouble the invariable success that marked the career of the titute in the seventeen years its existence.

It is unnecessary in this con- ction to enumerate all the mplaints treated at the In- tute, but the Doctor feels it duty to call especial atten- n to that terrible scourge, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, that is sapping with its in- diousness the very life of its ctims; in the treatment and re of which the Institute has rned so enviable a reputa- n.

EASTERN NEWS

By Overland Mail--Dates to Aug 7th

By overland mail we have [illegible] dates [illegible] Aug 7 and Eastern to Aug [illegible] from which we [illegible] the following

[illegible] IN THE [illegible] CONVENTION AT [illegible]

[illegible] Aug 5 The Convention assembled [illegible] M

Mr Merrill being absent the first Vice President Hon Stephen [illegible] Mayor of Halifax [illegible] He alluded [illegible] to the [illegible] of Halifax [illegible] He [illegible] had been informed that [illegible] of [illegible] States [illegible] He would be welcomed [illegible] heartily by the people [illegible] and [illegible]

A [illegible] reciprocity treaty resolution was taken up and it was considered [illegible] unanimous consent

Hon Henry [illegible] of Bangor spoke in favor of the lumber interests against [illegible]

Mr [illegible] of Michigan replied arguing the [illegible] relations existing in the interests of the people of the great Northern Valley who are now separated by an arbitrary boundary He represented a State having four times the lumber interests of Maine His people [illegible] the general good [illegible] Tariffs are to protect labour but there is a free trade [illegible] between the United States and Canada that free traders and protectionists [illegible] may [illegible] in favor of reciprocity on [illegible] The old treaty was annulled at a time when currency was most inflated and taxes highest and the farmers and manufacturers needed extra protection but now that the emergency is past we had better renew

Mr [illegible] of Boston spoke in favor of reciprocity [illegible] the speedy reduction of the tariff He said the fishermen of Massachusetts [illegible] the renewal of the treaty and argued [illegible] and must be protected for the benefit of the few The lumbermen of Maine are [illegible] by the [illegible] every day growing greater as the Canadian lumbermen move further back [illegible] the [illegible] It has also been protected by exemption when other manufacturers were taxed [illegible] per cent

Mr Breckinridge of Prince Edward's Island spoke in favor of reciprocity

Mr [illegible] briefly and forcibly replied to the three speakers He said the free use of the St Lawrence was an argument before the treaty but during ten years we never used it It was worthless being closed too long during the year He knew that the question would be settled before he spoke, and his people knew it before they sent him

The question was put and the resolution adopted

After passing the customary vote of thanks the Convention adjourned [illegible]

[illegible] AT KENDALLVILLE [illegible]

[From the Chicago Tribune

KENDALLVILLE, Ind August 6 This has been a day of rejoicing for Kendallville and Noble county thousands turning out as on a holiday to hear Hon Will Cumback and Hon Billy Williams member from this (the Tenth) District who were escorted through town with music and banners and received at the grove with firing of cannon and cheers from the multitude After a patriotic song by the glee club Governor Cumback was introduced to the audience and gave one of his telling speeches giving a thorough review of the Democratic party and the tax question speaking one and a half hours

He was followed by Congressman Williams who spoke near two hours going over the whole situation making a strong point on taxation by taking from the records of the Revenue Collector that only ten Democrats in Noble county paid an annual revenue tax and that only $1 00 while two Republicans in the county paid more than all the Democratic party Then why should the Democracy complain?

Both were thoroughly applauded and all felt happy The exercises closed with songs from the Glee Club which institution is the order of the day through Northern Indiana to assist on all loyal occasions

The [illegible] holders are all right and do not desire a change

AT WATSEKA ILL

WATSEKA, Ill August 6 General Jesse H Moore Republican candidate for Congress spoke here last night to a Court House full of people His argument on reconstruction was very fine His scoring of the Democracy elicited the wildest applause He will increase the majority of 1866 Moore is going to make a splendid race

A [illegible] AND ADULTEROUS HUSBAND AND HIS [illegible] [illegible]

BOSTON August 6 At Chesterfield Mass a man named H Pittsinger who is said to have kept a woman as a kitchen servant and between them to have abused his wife so that she was compelled to leave him last month was visited a night or two since by about thirty men in disguise and also by a committee of women and was ordered to surrender He resisted and knocked [illegible] the assailants down but was soon overpowered Pittsinger and his housemaid were then marched to the house of his brother near which the unfortunate pair were stripped of their clothing tarred and feathered and [illegible] about a [illegible] pledges were exacted from Pittsinger [illegible] divulge the names of those engaged in the proceedings to remove his servant from town within forty eight hours and to make [illegible] of his guilt to his wife if not done a worse visitation was to follow

THE REVENUE BUREAU

The President has endorsed an acceptance upon the letters of resignation of Mr Rollins and returned it to Secretary McCulloch Mr Evarts returned to day and the question whether this acceptance by the President vacates the office will be decided in the Cabinet to morrow The endorsement by the President affords no indication whether the resignation is accepted as an unconditional one, or in the terms which it was tendered Deputy Commissioner Harlan [illegible] performing the duties of Commissioner as he always does in the absence of Mr Rollins

GENERAL MEADE'S [illegible]

WASHINGTON Aug 6—General Meade's first order from his Headquarters Department of the South makes no allusion [illegible] the [illegible] concentration of troops [illegible] the effect [illegible] movements [illegible] taken [illegible] it is surmised that it may be judged [illegible] to withdraw their [illegible] the few stations specified in the order of General Meade reorganizing his military district

[illegible] OF THE [illegible]

The Richmond Whig [illegible] commenting upon the statement that Mr Chase had remarked while in Richmond that the Supreme Court was ready to declare the reconstruction laws unconstitutional says if it be true that the Chief Justice desires to reaffiliate with the Republican party he has reason to pray that no question may be raised as to what he remarked while in Richmond

MINISTER JOHNSON'S INSTRUCTIONS

It is understood that the instructions of Reverdy Johnson were not particularly strong regarding the Alabama claims He was merely directed to pursue the same course as his predecessors on that question but was more fully instructed regarding the American doctrine of expatriation It is believed the [illegible] Secretary Seward authorized him to negotiate [illegible] as to the rights of naturalized citizens [illegible] that lately agreed upon between Prussia and the United States

THE NEW YORK WORLD'S SPY AND [illegible]

From Correspondence Chicago Republican

The World sent a correspondent to St Louis to watch the movements of General Grant and to discover something if possible which might be so distorted as to be used as capital against him in the campaign This gentleman did not make himself known to the General or any of his party but rather seemed to shun them at the same time [illegible] them about the [illegible] from one place to another keeping an eye on the movements from a distance

Meantime one of his St Louis letters in the World had made its appearance and being perused it brought the writer out in his true light The correspondent in this article claimed to have seen General Grant [illegible] drinks in company with a number of others and altogether sought to make out a strong case on that side

Now [illegible] had sent his card into the quarters of the [illegible] for the purpose of drawing him out but failed in that object He therefore took occasion to meet him and designed if possible to discover his position and [illegible]

When asked why he had so long shunned General Grant and his party and kept so far in the background following but not making himself known to them his reply was that he had found [illegible] put himself forward in a place where [illegible] his political sentiments he was confident he would not be made welcome or be allowed the same facilities for observing and writing which under different circumstances would be expected

He was assured that had he come forward at first and frankly made known his position in a gentlemanly way showing by such a course that he meant to deal honestly in his capacity as a writer for a public journal he would have received as favorable recognition as he could have desired without regard to his connection with a journal which advocated a political faith differing from their own

General Dent alluded to his letter in the World in which he had assailed General Grant and charged him in the presence of several spectators some of whom were members of the guild with having dealt in falsehood in making those charges He added that the case was too clear to admit of a possible mistake that the correspondent had seen him [General Dent] bring, without General Grant's knowledge three glasses of ale into the car where the party were seated one glass of which he gave to a gentleman who was temporarily with the party another to a lady accompanying him and drank the third glass himself

Notwithstanding the correspondent had witnessed his act he had the hardihood to distort the circumstance to such an extent as to include General Grant in a sweeping charge of participation in the use of intoxicating drinks

Ah well General replied the World's man in self defense you know how it is with men of our profession when we can't get facts we are compelled to manufacture something instead

At this remark there was a general outburst of laughter from the representatives of the press who were present, which so discomfited the manufacturing correspondent that he withdrew in confusion

Immediately he secured lodgings in a little negro cabin where through a patched window he could view his subjects and take notes from which to manufacture material to his heart's content. When the General's party left St Louis and proceeded westward he prepared to follow them closely His mode of operation was to hang about the station at each place where a change of course was made, and so soon as he discovered to what point the tourists had checked their baggage checked his own to the same place

In this manner he followed them for several days but at length his funds being exhausted perhaps he disappeared and was seen no more by the party

A Rising Cloud in the South—What shall be our Future

From the New York Herald, July 31st

We published in yesterday's Herald [illegible] reports from the Southern States indicating trouble in the approaching election

All this turmoil is the natural result of the policy avowed by the Democratic party and [illegible] up by the President of not recognizing the legal authority of the State Governments organized under the Congressional Reconstruction laws, but insisting upon the right of the [illegible] to cast their electoral votes under the laws and regulations of the provisional governments organized soon after the [illegible] by Andrew Johnson An attempt to carry out this [illegible] would be necessarily a revival of civil war, as it would bring the recognized authorities in direct collision with those who disregard and violate the existing laws of a State. If [illegible] by the [illegible] it would restore to power the [illegible] and Forrests and Wade Hamptons and Forsythes, who were the leading spirits of the Confederacy, and would entirely change the [illegible] of our [illegible] and direct the future policy of the nation into a new channel

We are happily, not left to [illegible] this point, and whatever course the people may determine to pursue they have the full knowledge of the results to be reached. The Southern leaders of the rebellion who were [illegible] of the [illegible] Democratic Convention take [illegible] for a full share of responsibility in the manufacture of the platform upon which their [illegible] stand, and express the [illegible] that its triumph in the election would be the revival of their cause. There can be but one interpretation of this language It means that the men who in 1861 raised the standard of revolt against the Government, because they could no longer control it, seek in 1869 to make use of the power and authority of the Government to recover all they lost by their unsuccessful rebellion. As [illegible] they signally failed When they refused longer allegiance to the Constitution and withdrew from the protecting shadow of their country's flag they committed a fatal blunder The first shot fired by a fratricidal hand at an American fort [illegible] back to the nation's heart the patriotic blood of '76, and sealed the doom of [illegible] who had made themselves traitors and [illegible] by their own act At the close of the their unholy war they were probably prepared to accept the situation and acknowledge [illegible] subdued But now, encouraged by the [illegible] of the President and the prospect of a Democratic revival, they take a new departure and boldly avow their intention to carry the war into Africa, and to seize control of the Southern [illegible] If the people of the United States are prepared for this change from Radicalism to the old slaveowning secession aristocracy they will submit to the Southern programme of the ex-rebel leaders and place the Federal Government in the hands of Seymour and Blair They may then expect soon to see Wade Hampton and Forrest leading armies against the New England States, not as rebels but backed by the power and authority of the Executive the Commander-in Chief of the army and navy of the United States. They may look to a civil war not confined to sections, but spreading over every State of the Union, making picket lines of every river and a sharpshooter's ambush of every tree What can we expect of Seymour or of Blair or of a party one of whose orators is Wade Hampton and whose platform is made in great part by the men who waged a four years' war to destroy the government? Seymour is rather worse than poor Pierce—a mere retailer of infinite twaddle If his party were to win we should expect to see him withdraw and Blair take his place Blair has promised in advance to take us back to the chaos of disorganization He would observe constitutional forms—that is, he would wait until he had [illegible] a Congress of his own creatures, which he [illegible] certainly do by such a use of government patronage as has not been dreamed of hitherto With that Congress and that President whither might we not be taken? And if the Northern people resisted another war of coercion would be easy to start and a Southern army with a change of coat and colors, might march into the Middle or New England States under Wade Hampton to assert the authority of the National Government Events less likely have been seen We believe that Grant is safe and as we we have seen him in the war win battles in spite of the enemy in front and the politicians behind we could hope that he might do quite as much again His election affords the only promise of saving the country from such a future as an indiscriminate war of factions would involve

A Sequence of the Democratic Convention It has always been asserted by Union men acquainted with the Southern rebels that should the Democracy ever get into power or obtain a position from which success should be possible the rebellious fiery and bloody spirit which was scotched but not killed with the surrender of Lee would be again warmed into active life. This prediction is being every day fulfilled of which the evidences are coming almost daily by telegraph and mail. The Democratic party is in power so far as the President has power but his evil machinations have been greatly thwarted by a loyal Congress and the rebels have neither depended much upon his ability to help them nor upon his personal fidelity to them. Thus till the meeting of the New York Convention we had but few public exhibitions of the awakened spirit of sedition. But how has it been since? All over the South, at the Seymour and Blair ratification meetings the speakers—mostly active rebel officers and politicians, many of them disfranchised and unpardoned and unrepentant criminals have been blatant, blustering threatening and defiant, and have directly or indirectly encouraged the people to acts of violence. In Louisiana, the effect has been to create such a reign of terror that the Governor was recently compelled to call upon the President for aid to execute the laws preserve the peace and protect the people from Ku Klux assassins. The evidences of the truth of Gov Warmouth's representations were such as to induce the President to issue orders to the military to take measures for the suppression of the reigning turbulence. The telegraph informs us that there is such a reign of terror in Tennessee that the loyal people are in greater danger to-day from the Ku Kluxes than they ever were from the rebels during the war. Hardly a day passes but some new outrage is perpetrated or some new development made of intended violence and insubordination. All this proceeds as a natural sequence of the New York Convention and the position of the Democratic party on the status of the reconstructed and readmitted States of the South. The Southern delegates and rebels were made to believe that the Democracy would triumph in the November election, and they immediately betook themselves to firing the Southern heart again and to propagating the virus of treason. The success of the Democracy as the rebels logically believe, is the success of the Lost Cause, and seeing as they think the [illegible] to be achieved, they have not had prudence enough to await it, before setting about the business in which every Democratic declaration encourages them to embark.

Horatio Seymour, though caught by an "overwhelming tide" in 1868, was very careful not to be caught by a tide in 1861, when the flames of war burst out in South Carolina, when the very intensity of excitement, doubt and alarm almost suspended the beating of the national heart. Seymour, being then uncertain which way the "tide" would flow went and hid himself among the inland lakes of Wisconsin, for nearly half a year, and only came out to public view when the great overwhelming tide of patriotism had caught up every loyal man in the land. He then ballasted himself over on the popular tide and swam bravely into the gubernatorial mansion at Albany. He was immediately, however, caught by an ebb tide and sucked back into copperheadism, from which he never again extricated himself. Seymour seems thus to have been extremely subject to overwhelmings. For the first half year of the war, he was overwhelmed with doubt as to which side to take; then for a year or so, overwhelmed with spasms of loyalty; then overwhelmed again with chagrin at the success which he prophesied could never be achieved by the Government; overwhelmed in '64 by the loyal voters of New York whom he could no longer deceive and betray, and overwhelmed and caught by a tide in July 1868. The overwhelming which will eclipse all others in which Seymour ever floundered will occur at the November election, when his ebb tide will leave him sprawling in the mud flats of Democracy, as sorry a specimen of an eel as ever wormed in or wormed out.

The Democratic Ku Kluxes of Kentucky lately asked President Johnson to remove General Thomas from the command of the districts composed of Kentucky and Tennessee. Gen. Thomas is one of the generals who assisted in quieting the conservative Kentucky chaps during the war, and we suppose he is exerting now a quieting influence, rather inimical to the purposes of the Ku-Klux Democracy. If the conservative imitators of the chivalry could only only prevail on the President to remove Thomas and send them Gen Forrest, or some other of the distinguished generals who figured in one or the other of the New York conventions, they might be able to carry on an enthusiastic and successful campaign for Seymour and Blair. They could overawe the Union voters by cutting their throats, or hanging them to Kentucky apple trees.

The Daily Morning Chronicle.—We have received from Charles de Young & Co a prospectus of the Daily Morning Chronicle (now Dramatic Chronicle) to be issued on and after September 1st. The new paper is to retain all the attractive features of its predecessor and to have other and new features added. No one who has heretofore read the Dramatic Chronicle, will doubt, therefore that it will be as independent as it is in human nature to make it, as spicy as wit humor, sarcasm and plain truth can be and as emphatically a live newspaper as any published on this coast. We shall give the forthcoming daily a hearty welcome.

The "overwhelming tide" in which Seymour was caught is sweeping over the rural districts of Tennessee. In that State it is called a reign of terror. The tide takes unprotected Union men out of their houses at midnight and hangs them confiscates their arms and valuables and commits various other deviltries. Negroes and loyal white men have to lie low when the tide flows. The "overwhelming tide" is rushing on as rapidly to revolution and civil war as ever did the consuming fire with which the Chivalry in 1860–1 were wont to fill the hearts of the Southrons.

Democracy and National Credit.—On the 4th of July, 1868, gold was written in the New York market 140⅞, and legal tenders were there for worth about seventy-one cents. Immediately following the New York Convention not only greenbacks but the bonds of the government commenced going down. Within two weeks thereafter greenbacks were selling as low as 67. The amount of that sort of currency [illegible] stated at about $3 000 000 [illegible] the loss was therefore $1 000 000 [illegible] the legitimate effect of the declarations in the Democratic platform looking toward repudiation and directly attacking the National credit. Our securities went down in all the money markets where they were held showing that the depreciation was not local or referable to local speculations. Gold is still up and legal tenders still down and their relative positions will remain exactly in proportion to the relative chances of Seymour and Grant in the November election. Whenever and wherever the holders of our national securities become suspicious of the national credit the latter must suffer. The Democratic party with loud boasts of its ability to win had made a direct assault upon the national credit and it was not therefore at all a mystery what was the matter with the money market. That gold has within a few days slightly receded and that greenbacks have slightly appreciated are facts probably referable to a growing conviction everywhere that Seymour cannot be elected and that the threats against the national honor and credit made by the Democratic party cannot be carried into execution.

We acknowledge the receipt from the Secretary of the State Agricultural Society of a complimentary ticket to the State Fair to commence Sept 28th and to continue to Oct 3d inclusive.

IDAHO

From the Boise Statesman of the 18th, we get the following

THE ELECTION—ONEIDA COUNTY

Oneida is so far the banner county of Idaho giving Butler fifty six majority and electing the people's ticket. Through some hook or crook Joseph Miller's name was left off and A Reed's name figured as candidate for district attorney. How this came about we do not know but can safely say that it shows signs of a straw catching hombre perhaps trading Shafer for Reed or for the whole ticket. We will publish the complete returns as soon as possible.

OWYHEE COUNTY RETURNS

The Avalanche says. The official returns of the county have not yet been received from all the various precincts but it is certain that the whole Democratic ticket is elected by quite a large majority. The entire vote will foot up between eleven and twelve hundred. Shafer's majority over Butler for Delegate to Congress as near as can be ascertained, is 38 and Stephens majority over Springer for sheriff is about 167. Silver City precinct gave Butler 30 majority over Shafer. Owing to Butler's immense popularity he ran largely ahead of his ticket everywhere.

BOISE COUNTY—OFFICIAL.

The World says. The official returns from this county canvassed yesterday by the board of county canvassers elect every Democratic candidate for county and legislative offices except Ed Donah for assessor. John Taylor his opponent on the people's ticket is elected by one vote. Majority for Frank B Britten for sheriff over John Gray, 35. Majority of J K Shafer for delegate 315, and of R E Foote for district attorney 275. Total vote of county, 1,919.

PUGET SOUND

The Seattle Intelligencer has the subjoined items

We learn that workmen are engaged in erecting the frame for the Freeport Mill and it is expected the establishment will be in full operation in about three weeks.

We understand that Col Williamson who came up on the last steamer, has consummated the purchase of Point Wilson, on behalf of the Government, from E S Fowler, Esq. We are informed that $3 000 in gold coin was the amount paid.

On Monday, three ladies of the Sisters of Charity, arrived here by the Anderson accompanied by Bishop Blanchet. In the afternoon the party left for the Tulalip Indian Reservation where they will establish a school for native females.

Sheriff Littlefield arrived here on Thursday with three witnesses in charge. We understand they appear to testify against Smith who is charged with the murder of the mate of the English bark Mariner at Port Blakeley, on the 28th of April last. In default of finding bail, these witnesses have been in custody ever since.

We are indebted says the Tribune to the politeness of Elwin March, Esq, Register of the Land Office at Olympia, for the following figures showing the business of his office for the month of July, 1868. Lands sold for cash during the month, 1,077 60 100 acres entries under the homestead act 704 77 100 acres certificates issued on the final proof of claims under the homestead act, 2 052 77 100 acres, claims filed under the pre emption act 480 acres certificates issued for claims under the donation act 784 7 100 acres. Of the lands sold for cash about one half or fifteen hundred acres, were purchased by non residents on speculation. This class of purchasers embraces residents of Oregon, California and a member of Congress at Washington. The latter personage sent a draft for 160 acres with a request that the land be located as near Seattle as possible in three or more plats regardless of the quality of the soil. His desire is, obviously, to get somewhere in the vicinity of the Northern Pacific Railroad terminus.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

We have files of the Victoria Colonist to the 19th from which we clip the following Information has been received in this town that Sir J A McDonald has dispatched a special messenger to England to conclude finally the transfer of the Hudson Bay Co territory to the Dominion Government, that he expects to conclude the transfer without delay and that then they will be prepared to admit British Columbia into the Confederacy upon conditions satisfactory to all parties.

The Cariboo Sentinel says A very important discovery of gold has been made on Peterson creek by Mr John Kennedy. The discovery claim (of which Mr Kennedy is the proprietor) is situated on a bench opposite the mouth of Basford creek. The prospects are undoubtedly bona fide, and of such a character that their richness in all probability has not been struck in the country since the discovery of William creek. Claims have been staked off on the main creek for about three miles and also on some of its tributaries. The discovery will open out a large and long neglected auriferous district and give employment to our surplus population.

Secretary Seward has instructed Mr Dorwin Associate Justice of Washington Territory in relation to American Civil Jurisdiction on the Island that as for reasons of high public expediency the tenure of that Island has since the arrangement between the two (British and American) Governments upon the subject been exclusively military it is deemed advisable that that tenure should continue until it shall have been terminated by the parties. It is presumed to be competent for the War Department to redress, pursuant to military law and regulations any grievances with which the officers and soldiers, subject to its orders may be charged.

Dispatches from Rio to July 31st say the attack on the fortress of Humaita took place on the morning of July 16th. The combined allied force was under command of the Marquis de Caxias advanced to the assault in three columns amounting in the aggregate to 10 000 men at the same time a heavy fire was opened upon the fortifications from the fleet of iron clads and the land batteries. After desperate fighting at the fort the allies' entrenchments the allied columns retired without effecting a lodgment within the enemy's works. The loss of the Allies is reported at 3 000 killed and wounded. Nothing is known of the loss of the Paraguayans but as they fought most of the time under cover of their intrenchments, it is supposed that the number of their killed and wounded will be far behind that of the Allies. The Allied forces in Gran Chaco also advanced with the object of cutting off the connections of Lopez in the forest. They found them defended by a large body of troops and protected by breastworks. After a desperate fight the Allies withdrew. The casualties in this battle are not stated. The loss of the war party in Brazil rested on the success of this enterprise and its failure will give great impetus to the peace movement.

Vienna Aug 19. Apprehensions are entertained that the recent attempt at an uprising against the Turkish authority in Bulgaria will be renewed. More Squirming

The painful efforts of Democratic journals to wriggle out of the attitude of repudiators and revolutionists are in vain. Their resort to misrepresentation and falsehood will not help them. The [illegible] in this city admits the Government debt has fallen from seventy seven in 1866 to sixty seven at the present time. It attempts to lay the fault of this upon the "bad Government" of the radicals, the expense and delay in reconstruction, etc. It repeats its former misrepresentations about the debt, which it asserts has advanced from $2 500 528 827 in May to $2 [illegible] on the 1st of August. This we have frequently shown to be only an apparent increase, due to paying out the interest accumulated in the Treasury. Thus on May 1st $25,217,146 of this interest was paid, and on July 1st, $17,[illegible] more, making in all nearly forty three millions, which was accounted for as in the Treasury on May 1st and July 1st, but which the Government then owed. This amount, less the accumulated receipts since May 1st, accounts for the $24 00[illegible] by which the Reporter falsely asserts the debt has been increased. There being no interest to pay now until September, there will be an accumulation in the Treasury which will cause an apparent decrease of the debt. Thus on April 1st, 1868 the debt was stated at $2,519 209 687 and on May 1st at $2,[illegible],528,827—an apparent decrease in one month of nearly nineteen millions, which the Reporter must admit on the same principle it claims an increase. The state of the Treasury balances shows the case to be as we have stated it. On May 1st the money on hand was $139 087,794, on August 1st, it is only $106 194 537—showing a reduction from the payment of interest as above stated.

As to the price of bonds being affected by bad government and the delay of reconstruction, the less Democratic journals say about that the better. Who but they and their allies have delayed reconstruction? Moreover, they either do not know or dare not give the figures to show how bonds have been affected during the last three years. We have before us New York quotations for July 1 1865, July 1 1866, July 1, 1867, and July 1, 1868, and they prove just the contrary of what the Reporter asserts. Thus, on July 1 1865 gold was at 140, and the five twenties of 1862 which the Democrats now want to pay off in greenbacks were selling at 103¼ in currency, equivalent to 73¼ in gold. That was at the end of the war when the question of redeeming in greenbacks had not been lisped by anybody. On July 1 1866, the Johnson policy and rebel reconstruction under full headway. After the Philadelphia Convention a cable telegram was received which announced, to the consternation of the faithful that rebel bonds had risen in England and ours declined. Pendleton now began to develop his financial theories. What was the effect of all this? On July 1, 1866, gold was 154, and the five-twenties of 1862 were selling for 66 in gold. That Fall the Johnson policy received its quietus at the polls, and the next midsummer the Congressional plan was in rapid progress. How did this "bad government" affect the currency and bonds? On July 1, 1867, gold was at 138, and the five twenties of 1862 at 109 in currency, or 78½ in gold. The subsequent delays in reconstruction are manifestly chargeable to the Democracy; they glory in the fact, and instead [illegible] destroying what they delayed. Still they [illegible] fair promises after Grant's nomination, until their Convention met. How did the Government credit stand then? On July 1, 1868, gold was at 140, and the five twenties of 1862 at 104 in currency or 78 in gold. Now the Reporter says the bonds are down to 67, as of course they must be if paid at par in currency with gold at 150. Do not these facts show clearly that it is rebel reconstruction, rebel rule and Copperhead financial policy which depress the credit of the nation [illegible] It was so in 1866 [illegible] to-day. There is no [illegible] for anyone who calmly [illegible] The only way to get [illegible] is to elect Grant. The [illegible] Buchanan as [illegible] with his crazy mob [illegible] make every business [illegible] tremble.—Sacramento [illegible]

[illegible] A DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.—On the [illegible] of the Fourth of July last [illegible] having heard [illegible] of President Jo[illegible] and sheets of the "D[illegible] Kuklux) organization proceeded to show their gratitude at the restoration of the rights of white men by a high old time, whipping hard working and inoffensive colored men. To achieve a glorious Democratic victory of this sort, it takes from fifteen to [illegible] mounted and armed white men to one colored, and in this proportion they called upon Abram Roberts. This victim was [illegible] in his house, as all honest men should be at [illegible] of the night, upon the place of his employer, Mr John Roberts, five miles [illegible] of D[illegible], in Weakley county.

Two of them upon breaking in and awakening him [illegible] him that the "Dead Rebels" had [illegible], and that he must go with them as they were determined to kill him. They took him twenty yards and, cursing him as having been a d—d Federal soldier, swore they would hang him. Besides the crime of having been a U.S. soldier, they charged him with having [illegible] two pistols to the place. He told them that he had no pistols [illegible] that they knew [illegible] all that he had never had [illegible] his brother in law, who sub[illegible] They might kill [illegible] not for having a [illegible] They then [illegible] him down [illegible] times, amusing themselves by asking him [illegible] as they hit him with all their might with their revolvers over the head. After also kicking, beating and whipping him, as he deserved of course for allowing himself to be created a "nigger" by the Almighty, they told him not to lisp a word of the affair, and left.

They visited several other colored men during the same night, and beat them in the most approved style of chivalry. It was truly a joyous revival of the procedure of the good old Democratic times when "niggers" were made to know their places. It was a triumph of Democratic principles such as would have redoubled the most ecstatic cheers of the New York convention.—Memphis Post.

A Sun-stroke, according to General Napier, must be a rather pleasant way out of the world. The General tried it in Scinde once, and wrote of it to his daughter as follows: "The sun-stroke was a staggerer, yet my hope is to die by one, for never can death come in an easier shape. I was just deadly sleepy; it was deadly had I been left alone, but the only feeling of the transition would have been a tiredness like that experienced at being suddenly waked up before time. This was to a degree almost to be called painful, then came a pleasant drowsiness, with anger that the doctors would not let me sleep. Were it not for others would that my horn had sounded: so easy, so delightful, I may say, was the approach of death."

Th[illegible] A Hendricks, the "bloated bond holder," and "National Bank bloodsucker" says the Indianapolis Journal, delivered a speech at New Albany (Ind.) on Saturday evening last—a little meaner and more demagogical than the one he [illegible] in Indianapolis on his return from Washington. Its effects were demonstrated by a Republican gain of 180 in the municipal election held on Monday, in New Albany. One more such speech ought to make it a decided Republican city.

A few days ago the Hartford Times professed authority to announce that Orville L Grant, brother of General Grant, has declared his intention to vote for Seymour. The Evening Post of Hartford, on Saturday, extracts from a letter of O. L Grant, pronouncing the statement false in every particular. Mr Grant says he is strong in the Republican faith, always has been, and always intends to be.

The Montgomery (Ala.) Sentinel says: "Frank P Blair reminds us of that mortal angel who went up in a balloon and landed in the bottom of a well. His military record, as he now stands will not give him a true soldier. His present political position so defined by his letter alarms every man with a family and a home in the country. He seeks office for the purpose of inaugurating civil war."

Official papers have come to light showing that the Democratic Executive Committee of Ohio have assessed a contribution of ten cents a head on each Democratic voter in the State, to carry on the campaign. The county committees are to collect it through the agency of sub committees. The last ten cent contribution by the Democracy was for the benefit of Vallandigham exclusively.

The Louisville Journal sounds the long roll, and says: "Democrats stand to the polls. If that will not do, stand to your guns!" and the spirit of these words breathes through mad speech and raving editorial from the Ohio to the Gulf. The only hope of quenching these flames is by smothering them under the overwhelming ballots cast for Grant, Colfax and Peace.

As there are a great many people sick and dying of a disease called Cholera Morbus, I would call attention to the Chinese Doctor Jim. Having eaten green fruit I was taken very bad with the above disease and lay insensible for four hours, when Dr Jim was called, and in 20 minutes after he gave me the first dose of medicine I was easy and asleep. I believe that there is no other doctor in the Pacific coast that could have relieved me as quick as Dr Jim did. M. G. MORGAN.

WHEEL

THESE WHEELS UNEQUALLED AND UNRIVALLED in the United States, [illegible] have been fully tested on this coast, many being in use at this date driving all kinds of machinery, Saw Mills, Flour Mills, Quartz Mills, [illegible]

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern: I hereby give notice that the so called "Shipley's [illegible] Turbine Water Wheel" is a direct infringement on my Patent of the James Leffel's American Double Turbine Water Wheel, and its manufacture and use is hereby prohibited. Any person or persons making, using, contracting or vending said Water Wheels make themselves liable to heavy damages and penalties. Parties interested will take notice that I shall prosecute said infringements to the utmost extent of the law.

That all may know I mean what I say, and am not playing "bluff," I give the following extract from a legal opinion on this subject from one of the most eminent Patent Attorneys in the United States.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 17, 1868.

"MR. A. MYERS—In accordance with your request, we have examined the patents of Shipley on Water Wheels, and are clearly of opinion that they both infringe the Leffel's patents. In both of Shipley's Wheels, one is the upper and [illegible] used, [illegible] and in this he clearly infringes. The fact that Shipley has applied [illegible] he would [illegible] so the as [illegible] he has no right to use those two [illegible] whether alone or with a third, or any [illegible] It is a clear infringement. Respectfully yours,

DODGE & MUNN.

I hereby give notice that I will prosecute every infringement on our Patents, whether the maker, user, buyer or seller. Every infringement whether our claims are used in whole or in part will be prosecuted.

H. W. SHIPLEY'S PACIFIC TURBINE WATER WHEEL.

THESE WHEELS EXCEL ANY OTHER WHEEL in use and are no infringement on the Leffel American Turbine, but excel it in every particular.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern.—One A. Myers is publishing and circulating a statement that my wheel is an infringement on the Leffel wheel, and he will "prosecute said infringers to the utmost extent of the Law." His statements are not worth a denial. His game is "Bluff," which if he would only take the case into Court would soon be played out. Don't believe him!

I would be glad to get a case into the United States Court and get a decision. That would forever stop the mouths of Myers and his mise[illegible]. The legal opinions of more reputable lawyers than Dodge & Munn and A. Myers have pronounced my patents no infringement on the American Turbine. H. W. SHIPLEY.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES.

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of [illegible] male and female sufferers [illegible] secret in the [illegible] absorbed into the system [illegible] tated and disfigured faces [illegible] tions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. [illegible] san is sufficient [illegible] Let parents, guardians, friends [illegible] who are suffering with any of these [illegible] see that they are cared for [illegible] late. Here they [illegible] physician who has made private diseases his [illegible] years and who is certain to cure them [illegible] without mercury or any injurious drugs. [illegible] who are afflicted, [illegible] interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who [illegible] publishing their skill in curing all diseases [illegible] upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emission, the [illegible] of self abuse. This solitary vice [illegible] is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combated by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves, palpitation of the heart, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use. [illegible] sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus [illegible] desire to [illegible] the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are [illegible] makers, newspaper carriers, Intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiries—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus certificates of pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.
